RE: Parish Subsidy Fee Commitment (Non-refundable)

Doing the Will of God.

Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic School assesses a parish subsidy fee to church parishes or families of students attending the school. The fee is based upon being an active member of a registered church parish. If the family meets the qualifications, the church may assist the family with payment of this fee. The following family has indicated that they are parishioners in your church parish. Please complete the information at the bottom once the family has completed the top portion. The form must be returned to the school.
